Good weather surprises riders

By JOE McNEILL
Motosport Editor
With the weather cooperating beautifully for the first time in many weeks, Strawberry Hill Motocross Park saw 247 riders competing last Sunday. The purse was $705 cash for professionals and trophies for junior and intermediate classes.

The track was as demanding as ever for man and machine. One treacherous mud hole was abandoned and the track was re-routed to insure all riders a competitive race.

The only drawback of the exciting race day was the unprofessional and sometimes uncouth announcing. This reporter has been assured by track promoter Tom Cone that this situation will have been corrected by next race day.

Important note: All riders wishing to participate in the races must have installed
